Terms and Cancellation Conditions:
We understand plans change. To be fair to everyone we detail our terms.

We appreciate your custom and aspire to provide a friendly and safe experience. All activities including those in which you have booked to engage do carry a degree of risk and by participating in the activities provided by the Operator you are assuming those risks personally and to the maximum extent permitted by law you release the Operator and its officers and employees from any liability, claims losses damages or expenses caused by any event including but not limited to:

- Personal injury or death;
- Property loss or damage;
- Acts which may be construed as negligent or accidental;
- Any other loss, damage, suffering, emotional or nervous disorder.

Cancellation by the client:

- Up to 24 hours before departure time: re-booking no cost or refund less 15%.
- Within 24 – 12 hours before departure time: 15% rebooking fee or refund less 50%.
- Within 12 hours or after departure time: no refund.

Cancellation by the guide:

8.30am your kayak guide will assess weather conditions and decide if the trip will go ahead. On cancellation, kayakers will have the following choices:

- Cancel the day's outing for a full refund less any lunch costs.

OR

- Choose a cruise or cruise and walk option (without a guide) from the operators available services. You will be refunded the cost of the kayak trip less the price of the alternative trip chosen and any lunch costs.

Our full terms and conditions can be viewed at www.abeltasman.co.nz or at our offices.

The Operator – Wilson's Abel Tasman National Park Ltd recommends that all customers have travel insurance arrangements in case of unforeseen circumstances.

NOTE: We reserve the right to alter itineraries, timetables and vessel types. All travel subject to weather and tides, which may cause delay/cancellation.
